

EDINBURGH CUP 2012

30 JUNE - 7 JULY 2012

Royal North of Ireland Yacht Club is located at Holywood on the County Down Coastline.

Belfast Lough is an open Lough on the east coast of Ireland and provides an excellent venue for Championship Racing with an extensive race area and minimal tidal influence.

Royal North is famous for its warm welcome and hospitality and has a heritage with Dragons dating back to the 1930's. The Club has previously hosted the Edinburgh Cup, Irish Championships and British Northern Area Championships.

RACE PROGRAMME

THE RACING

The Irish Dragon fleet comprises boats from Dublin Bay, Kinsale and Glandore and 'Kin' from Royal North of Ireland Yacht Club.

A high standard of racing is enjoyed by many Irish competitors who compete internationally, with the current and many past Edinburgh Cup Champions coming from Ireland.

We expect a high turnout of British, Irish and International competitors for the 2012 Edinburgh Cup and look forward to hosting what will be a superb week of Dragon racing and socialising.
